

Village Preschool of Portland
Photo Release

I, _____, hereby give Village Preschool of Portland, Inc. (“Village Preschool”) permission to photograph and capture digital images of my child, _____ . Given the co-operative nature of the school, I, as a parent of a currently enrolled child, am considered to be included in the definition of Village Preschool in the context of the release of photographic materials. Photographs and digital images of my child may be shared with and distributed to other current members of Village Preschool and their family members. I also understand that any images that are shared with me are to be used solely for private home use and not for distribution outside such use.

Please circle “YES” or “NO” beside the paragraphs below to indicate your choice.
I further allow Village Preschool to publish and distribute, without charge, these images in the following manner:

YES or NO Photographs and digital images of my child may be used in media including, but not exclusive to, brochures and newsletters for distribution to Village Preschool families, alumni families, prospective families, and parties having a general interest in the school. Neither my child’s name, nor any identifying or personal information will accompany the images.

YES or NO Photographs and digital images of my child may be used on the Village Preschool website. Neither my child’s name nor any identifying or personal information will accompany the images. While the website is intended for an audience associated with Village Preschool, I understand that any individual with access to a computer may view the website and can anonymously download any material found there.

YES or NO Photographs and digital images of my child may be used on the private Village Preschool of Portland Parents Facebook page. Neither my child’s name nor any identifying or personal information will accompany the images.
